Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election without traverse of Group II (claims 7-16) filed on 01/28/2004 is acknowledged.

Specification

Applicant is reminded of the proper language and format for an abstract of the disclosure.

The abstract should be in narrative form and generally limited to a single paragraph on a separate sheet within the range of 50 to 150 words. It is important that the abstract not exceed 150 words in length since the space provided for the abstract on the computer tape used by the printer is limited. The form and legal phraseology often used in patent claims, such as "means" and "said," should be avoided. The abstract should describe the disclosure sufficiently to assist readers in deciding whether there is a need for consulting the full patent text for details.

For this application, the abstract has two separate paragraphs.

Drawings

Figure 1 should be designated by a legend such as --Prior Art-- because only that which is old is illustrated. See MPEP § 608.02(g). A proposed drawing correction or corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 7,13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

With respect to claims 7,13, it is not clear how the components in the claimed are connected. How do they connect together in order to synchronize measurements with the sweeping of the wavelength of the electromagnetic energy?

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 7-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Colbourne et al (6,359,685).

With respect to claim 7, Colbourne discloses a testing system. The system comprises: a tunable laser 10 (fig 1) for illuminating a device under test (DUT) 26 (fig 1); a wavelength dependent transmission response (column 1, lines 48-54); a measuring circuit or detector 22 (fig 1).

Art Unit: 2877

Colbourne does not explicitly disclose synchronizing the measuring circuit to the wavelength dependent. However, Colbourne discloses providing a synchronization signal for using with system (column 2, lines 35-45). It would have been obvious to modify Colbourne's system to synchronize the measuring circuit to the wavelength dependent to make the system more efficient.

With respect to claims 8-9, 11-12, 14-15, the claimed gas cell or Fabry Perot device would have been known. It would have been obvious to use the known elements to save the system cost.

With respect to claim 10, refer to discussion in claim 7 above.

With respect to claim 13, refer to discussion in claim 7 above. Colbourne does not explicitly disclose a periodic wavelength reference. However, Colbourne discloses an apparatus for determining the wavelength to a tunable laser signal (column 1, lines 47-55) would perform the same function as the claimed periodic wavelength reference.

With respect to claim 16, it would have been obvious to modify Colbourne's system with a source of electromagnetic energy which is swept in a known way over a range of wavelengths to control the input signals to the device under test easier.
